on farm six miles south of Atlantic, Iowa.

Hopley Stock Farm.

A CONCIGNMENT OF EXCEPTIONAL WORTH, SONS AND DAUGHTERS OF VILLAGE BEAU OF ESPECIAL ATTRACTIVENESS, OTHER FEMALES BRED TO HIM THAT WILL PROVE THEIR DESIRABILITY.

The prospective buyer who will look through this catalog will be impressed with the great pedigrees, that splendid maternal foundation that is present, and the great bulls which appear in each one. Those who are inclined to buy, therefore, will turn to such an auction as this for it is certain that there shall be no disappointment when seed such as this is can be had at living prices. The Snorthorn breed is to be congratulated that its welfare is largely in the hands of such men as the Hopleys-men who are constructive in their ideas, who build up rather than tear down the great work of the breed's early founders. Such men as the Hopleys are entitled to all the encouragement that can be given them for their efforts in the production of improved stock. They give their best to the undertaking, they leave nothing undone to increase the efficiency of their plant in the turning out of a yearly output of bulls and females that are of a standard of excellence that will effect improvement if they are not denied the opportunity which is their rightful possession. Those who will be in attendance at this annual vendue will see such seed as is described. Three high class bulls of Villager blood will be auctioned, two by Village Beau, and one by Village Excellence, Villager's successor at Uppermill. Village Officer is in the writer's estimation a great prospect, a true representative of a tribe which rarely if ever produces the wrong kind, and a calf that can be given a recommendation that no one need be afraid to make. The Village Beau heifers, and the heifers by other sires bred to him will fill the eve of the critic, they will measure up to specific requirements as regards form and character, and they have the pedigree that is so necessary to show that they have not inherited their individual qualities through accident. Prospective buyers should consider that such seed is valuable, and that it will do much for them in establishing a herd whose foundation will last as long as Shorthorns are bred.

> By FRANCIS T. MARTIN, of The Breeder's Gazette.
